✓ De Ronde/De Ronda Family Newsletter —

The first issue of De Ronde(a) Connections, a new family newsletter, was published in December 1996 by Bob De Ronda of Oranckock, VA and John De Ronde of Pompano Beach, FL. In their welcoming message, the hosts of the newsletter write that they "expect to pay the freight using the cookie jar banking method and if any of you want to throw something in the jar to keep us rolling, it's appreciated." They plan eventually to publish the De Ronde(a) Genealogy and welcome all family information.

The first known De Ronde(a) ancestor in this country, according to current knowledge, was William Hendrickse De Ronde, who probably lived on Long Island, NY, but who followed the family of his bride, Magdalena Brouwer, to the wilderness of Westchester County and then probably settled in the general area of Peekskill and Montross in what was then known as Cortlandt Manor. Future generations moved south along the Hudson to Stony Point, and grandsons Abraham and Jacob (sons of Hendrick De Ronde and Catrina Lent) moved inland to the Spring Valley and Ramapo areas of Rockland County, NY.

Send subscriptions, comments, contributions, etc. to John W. De Ronde at: De Ronde(a) Connections, 259 SE 3rd Avenue, Pompano Beach, FL 33060 (phone: 954-781-4896).

✓ Buyer Beware — Halbert's of Bath, OH has a new book line: "The World Book of ..." that sells for $38.38 in the U.S. Such a book might possibly be helpful to family reunion planners, but more up-to-date information is available on CD-ROM telephone directories. Halbert's was ordered by legal action in 1989 to display a disclaimer "No direct genealogical connection to your family or ancestry is implied or intended."

✓ World War II Survey — According to an item in the November-December American Genealogical Lending Library Genealogy Bulletin, the U.S. Army Military History Institute is conducting a survey to acquire source material on World War II. All veterans of the war are invited to join in this effort by writing to the U.S. Army Military History Institute, Carlisle Barracks, Carlisle, PA 17013-5008. The Institute will send an 18-page questionnaire and the postage to return the form. The "Army Services Experiences Questionnaire" has several parts: general military service questions, overseas service, combat service, occupation and demobilization, and postwar experiences. WW II veterans are encouraged to complete the questionnaire in order to preserve their own personal memories and to add to the personal history of the conflict as a whole.

✓ Tarrytown NYG&BS/NEHGS Conference

— The third joint conference of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society (NYG&BS) and the New England Historic Genealogical Society (NEHGS) will be held July 11 and 12 1997 at the Westchester Marriott Hotel in Tarrytown, NY.

The conference will feature two days of lectures and programs on New York and New England genealogy by well-known genealogists, and will include a banquet and two luncheons with speakers.

The last Tarrytown conference, in 1995, was attended by almost 450 people and received rave reviews.

✓ New England Regional Genealogical Conference — The Fourth New England Regional Genealogical Conference (NERGC) is scheduled for April 24-27 at Cromwell, CT. The NERGC is a consortium of 30 genealogical organizations which assemble to promote a regional educational conference every 18 months in a different New England state each time.

The headquarters for the April Conference is the Radisson Hotel and Conference Center, 100 Berlin Road, Cromwell, CT (860-635-2000).

Early registration fees (discounted) must be received by 15 March. Registrations after April 15, including walk-in registrations, will not be guaranteed any meals.

For more information on the Conference, a listing of events, programs, and workshops, and a registration form, write to: Rosalie Godfrey, 56 High Street, Ipswich, MA 01938.

✓ National Genealogical Society Conference — The annual National Genealogical Society Conference will be held May 7-10 at Valley Forge, PA. The local host society is the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania. For information write for the conference brochure: NGS '97 Conference Registration Brochure, 4527 17th Street North, Arlington, VA 22207-2399 or call 703-525-0050 or fax 703-525-0052.

✓ Capital Dist. Gen. Soc. 15th Annual Conference — The Capital District Genealogical Society's 15th annual conference will be held April 12, 1997, at Albany, NY at the Holiday Inn, Wolf Road, Albany, NY, from 9 am to 4 pm. The cost will be $25.00, which includes morning coffee with pastries, and lunch. Roger Joslyn, a noted speaker and writer on New York and New Jersey research, will discuss three subjects: "Born in New York, but where in New York?" "Biting the Big Apple — a Taste of New York City Research," and "Taking a Closer Look at the Census, both Federal and State." In addition there will be vendors with many genealogical offerings for sale. To register, mail your name, address, phone number and $25 to Joan Madden, P.O. Box 385, Wynantskill, NY 12198. Questions? Call 518-283-2653. Pre-registration by April 1 is mandatory — there will be no walk-in registration.

✓ The Computer Genealogist — The publication formerly known as The New England Computer Genealogist has been renamed The Computer Genealogist and will be published bi-monthly. According to editor Stephen Kyner, the newsletter's original name reflected its association with its parent society, the New England Historic Genealogical Society, but the original name of the journal led people to assume it was a strictly regional publication. In fact, the publication has always featured articles of broad interest to all who use a computer in their genealogical work, without regard to regional specialization. The new name, The Computer Genealogist, will reflect and communicate more accurately the goals and content of the publication.

The new bi-monthly publication schedule will facilitate the expansion of the number of pages in each issue to a minimum of 20 and will allow more thorough, up-to-date, and in-depth articles.

Subscriptions are $20.00 per year for members of the New England Historic Genealogical Society or $30.00 per year for non-members. A free sample may be obtained by contacting the editor at 73340.3236@compuserve.com or by writing The New England Historic Genealogical Society, 101 Newbury St., Boston, MA 02116, telephone 617-536-5740, FAX 617-536-7307. ■

QUERIES

Queries will be published in the newsletter as space permits. It would be helpful if querists would submit their queries beginning with surnames concerned in the query listed alphabetically. Please keep queries clear, but concise, and provide identifying data — including names, dates and locations — whenever possible. Send queries to Pat Wardell, GSRC Newsletter Editor, 78 Edgewood Road, Allendale, NJ 07401; FAX to 201-760-9829; e-mail to wardell@nis.net

When answering a query, please send a copy of the answer to this editor for our files and for possible inclusion in future newsletters. Many thanks.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

♦ From Marjorie Smeltzer-Stevenot, 150 Johnstontown Road, Sloatsburg, NY 10974-1104:
Re: Query #111 in Dec 1996 newsletter —

WALDRON —

Resolvert Waldron of Amsterdam was one of Haverstraw's early settlers. He purchased land near Floris Falls in 1751.

David Cole's History of Rockland County (page 188) indentifies his children and grandchildren. There are nearly 100 Waldron baptisms in the Tappan Reformed Dutch Church records.

The clan is a large one and spread from the Hudson to the Ramapo Mountains in the west. They married into most of the early families.

❖ From Pat Wardell, 78 Edgewood Road, Allendale, NJ 07401:

Re: Query #111 in Dec 1996 newsletter —
WALDRON —

Two in-print resources to consult are:
Riker, James, History of Harlem, 1904,
"Waldron," pp. 691-778

Richardson, Douglas, "The European Origin and Ancestry of Joseph and Resolved Waldron" in The New York Genealogical & Biographical Record, January 1995, p. 12.

In addition, the baptisms of the Tappan Church, as Marjorie Smeltzer-Steven wrote (see above), include many Waldrons. Early baptisms of the Tappan, Tappan Irregular, and Clarkstown Reformed Dutch Churches were printed in Cole, David, History of Rockland County, New York, 1884 (reprinted in 1986, with index). ■

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR

Many thanks to our faithful contributors, Marie Koestler, Marjorie Smeltzer Stevenot, and Bob Protzmann for contributing information for this issue of the newsletter.

We cannot publish information we don't have, so we depend on GSRC members to send us their queries, research experience, family histories (even stories of one generation), transcripts of information found, etc. — anything that might be of Rockland County genealogical interest. Please write something for us!

If you find something that may be of interest to our readers, please send it or a copy (with name and date of publication it appeared in so that we can give proper credit) to: Pat Wardell, GSRC Newsletter Editor, 78 Edgewood Road, Allendale, NJ 07401. You can also send me e-mail addressed to PatWardell@aol.com or wardell@nis.net and you can fax to 201-760-9829 (24-hr fax machine).

Rockland County readers: because I actually live in Bergen County, NJ, I don't receive Rockland County local newspapers. If you see notices, articles, etc. of interest in the Rockland Co. papers, please mail or fax the article or a xerox to me (be sure to note the name of the paper and date of publication for a credit line). Many thanks! ■

LETTERS

From Mary Ann Kauchner, Baldwin, NY, 21 Dec 1996 — I read with great interest the Volume 11, No. 2 December 1996 issue of the Newsletter. I number among my ancestors several of the persons mentioned in the list of the slide presentation of the Nyacks, as well as Chrystenah Demarest Smith, for whom the river steamer was named.

In fact, the portrait of Chrystenah which hung in the boat is now hanging in my guest room, as she is my gggg-grandmother.

— Mary Ann Kaucher

From Janice Conklin-Hesselink, 21 Dec 1996 — How thrilled I am that GSRC is keeping up with the technology of the day. Thanks for going e-mail, too. Please add my e-mail address to your directory.

— Janice Conklin-Hesselink

OTHER LOCAL SOCIETIES

A GENEALOGIST'S DICTIONARY OF UNUSUAL OR ARCHAIC TERMS

We'll publish this feature from time to time as we receive additions. If you discover a bewildering term and can uncover its meaning, please send it to us for future publication. Sources or contributor's names are in parentheses.

Apoplexy — Stroke; a medical condition, often found as a cause of death.

Boatswain — A naval officer in charge of the hull and related equipment. (Marjorie Smeltzer-Stevenot)

Carratell — A measure of capacity varying for different commodities. Also: Caroteel; Catrell.

Castor — A hat originally of beaver fur. Also: Demy Castor.

Centaph — The word "centaph" engraved on a tombstone indicates an empty grave, with the stone erected in honor of or in memory of an individual who may actually be buried elsewhere, or whose remains were unavailable; often erected in honor of a person lost at sea.

Consort — The term "consort" was used to describe a woman whose husband survived her.

Coxswain — A sailor who had charge of a ship's boat and its crew. (Marjorie Smeltzer-Stevenot)

Dryfat — A large container (cask, barrel or box) used to hold dry commodities. Also: dryfatt; fatt; fft; tte.

Fustian — A cloth made of cotton and flax.

Hogshead — A cask for liquids and other commodities; of wine a measure of 63 gallons. Also: hhd.

Hundred — A measure of weight or quantity, with variations in either use. The hundredweight could be metric (gunpowder was in very early colonial times 100 lbs. to the cwt.) or avoirdupois (usually 112 lbs., but with variations). Sugar, spices, and wax were in early colonial times 108 lbs. to the cwt. Also: C; cwt.

Kilderkin — A cask. Also a measure of capacity, usually for butter. In very early colonial times the kilderkin of butter or soap conformed to the 16-gallon capacity of the ale kilderkin, the cask usually weighing 13 lbs. and the butter 112 lbs. There could be variations: 128 lbs. "caske and all" for butter; 115 lbs. "caske and all" for "clean butter." Also: killderkin; kln.

Marasmus — An infantile debility; a condition in which a child is unable to absorb nutrition from food.

Matross — Member of a train of artillery who assisted the gunner in loading, firing and sponging the gun. (Marjorie Smeltzer-Stevenot)

Patent — In the colonial period in what became the United States, the word "patent" was used as the legal term for an instrument by which the land was conveyed and over which the public authorities exercised the right of confirmation. The word was also used to designate a tract of land itself. A deed obtained from the Indian owners, alone, was not enough to transfer absolute title. The purchase still had to be confirmed by the Governor of the Province in the form of a grant, or patent, made to the buyer. In addition, a survey was required made by the Surveyor General of the Province, showing the extent of the land involved and as a prerequisite of the transaction. (Howard I. Durie, in "The Sandstone Homesteads of Montvale, Past and Present" serialized in Relics, the newsletter of the Pascack Historical Society, No. 114 January 1977), p. 3.

Relict — The term "relict" indicates that the woman so described was a widow.

Straightened — Out of fire wood. Hence, a family in "straightened circumstances" had depleted their wood pile and was out of fuel. (Marjorie Smeltzer-Stevenot) ■

ANCESTOR TABLES

In order to increase interaction between members, the Society has begun to publish Ancestor Tables, which are a brief listing of the ancestry of members. These tables will be printed in expanded editions of the newsletter for a year, after which the Board will evaluate the response and decide whether to continue publishing these tables. It is hoped that members will find distant cousins who share common lines, which will further the research efforts of both.

Other members are encouraged to submit their Ancestor Tables to Bob Protzmann, 4 Ethel Drive, New City, NY 10956, who will assist the editor in their preparation for publication.

Please note: the Genealogical Society of Rockland County and its editor are not responsible for the accuracy of the Ancestor Tables.

We remind our contributors that they should be submitting only documented ancestors. Please do not submit names that are not well documented. If there is any uncertainty, then the listing should be preceded by a "?".

Anyone interested in a particular ancestor or ancestral line should contact the submitter for details and documentation.

Anyone who has contradictory data or corrections should send a note to the Newsletter editor, or to Bob Protzmann at the address above, as well as directly to the submitter.

The numbering system used is as follows: The submitter is number 1. The father's number is twice the number of the son or daughter; i.e. double that of the child. Each wife's number is one higher than that of her husband. Even numbers are always male ancestors; odd numbers always female ancestors (except for #1 which is the number assigned to the subject of the table). If all ancestors were known, then all numbers would be used; where ancestors are not known, those numbers are omitted.

If you have brief comments, corrections, or additions to a published ancestor table, or wish to note additional sources, published articles, etc., send them (referencing the Ancestor Table name, date of issue in which published, and the individual person's number in that Ancestor Table) to Bob Protzmann at the address above. We will publish these in a continuing dialogue, in the ANCESTOR TABLE FORUM.

■■■ Re: Ancestry Tables

I was reading that the ancestor tables would be published for a year then be evaluated to decide if they will be continued. Well, PLEASE! KEEP THEM GOING! They are really valuable- especially for people like me who don't live in the Rockland area. I have met people and gleaned much from those tables!
Please tell me that they will continue!!

■ Re: Ancestry Table of Carole Elaine Masotto, in this newsletter, p. 13, SNEDEN

Your No. 400, Robert Sneden/Snethen, Sr. was the son of Claes (Nicholas) Sneden and his wife, Maria. Robert was born by 1675 or earlier in New Amsterdam/New York City, and died after January 1734.

Robert Sneden was listed as a Freeman in the Flushing Precinct in a census of 1698. The Oyster Bay Town Records contain deed and other information pertaining to his business activities. On Jan. 4, 1697 Robert Sneathing of Flushing bought from John Boud of Oyster Bay "a certain Island or Neck of land containg about 50 acres lying within ye bounds of Oysterbay, northward from Musketa Cove as the same is now laid out and marked." Musketa Cove is now the Glen Cove locality.

On Oct. 16, 1704 Robert Snething, house carpenter, bought from Daniel Simkins of "Musketa Cove" in bounds of Oyster Bay, for 21 pounds, a lot of 9-1/4 acres and 4 rods within the limits of Musketa Cove Patent, bordering land of Robert Snething and Nicholas Snething. Daniel Simkins was last mentioned at Oyster Bay about 1706; by 1710 Daniel was at Greenwich (then called Cohansey) in Cumberland County, N.J. in the same area as Robert Sneden's brother, Joseph Snethen, and Joseph's son, Nicholas.

On Jan. 4, 1713, Robert Sneathing of the Township of Oysterbay, Queens County, N.Y., yeoman, sold to Adrean Hegman of Township of Brockland, Kings County, for consideration of 400 pounds, 3 tracts of land in Township of Oysterbay. He signed "Robart Senethen." Sarah "Senathen" also signed with her mark.

The family moved to the Eastchester locality of Westchester County, N.Y. about the time of the following purchase: Deed dated Dec. 1, 1713, recorded in Book E, p. 53, Richard Osburn of Eastchester, yeoman, and wife, to Robert Snealling of Queens County on ye Island of Nassau, yeoman (called Sneathing in rest of deed) for consideration of 340 pounds covering several tracts in Patent of Eastchester, etc. Additional land was purchased Jan. 16, 1726 from Isaac Odell for 150 pounds (Deed F, p. 169), in which grantee's name is spelled "Sneadden." His Cattle Mark was entered Nov. 1, 1723 (Deed book E, p. 379).

The name of Robert Sneddon, Snedon, Sneadon, Sneedon, Sneaddon, is found in records of Town of Eastchester; he serving, beginning in 1715 and through 1729, in various duties as Treasurer, Appraiser of intestate estates, Sheepmaster, Fence Viewer, Overseer of Highways, Trustee, School Committee and Common Lands Committee.

Robert Sneden disposed of his real estate in Eastchester by the following deeds:

Book G, p. 171, dated Jan. 18, 1734, Robert "Snedden Senr." (Snewden) yeoman to son, Robert Snedden, Junr., carpenter, for consideration of 100 pounds.

Book G, p. 196, dated Jan. 16, 1734, Robert Sneden, yeoman, and Sarah, his wife, to James Burling of N.Y., merchant, for consideration of 75 pounds.

Book G, p. 344, dated Jan. 31, 1734, Robert Sneden, yeoman, "for consideration of love and affection" to son Samuel Sneden, "for the advancement of his said son" land in Eastchester bounded by devises of Lewis Guion, deceased.

This Robert may have been the same Robert Sneathing at whose home, apparently in the vicinity of Rye (Westchester County), New York, occasional Quaker meetings were held in 1727.

Robert Sneden, Sr., died at an unknown date without a recorded estate.

Robert Sneden and his wife Sara -?- had children (order unknown):

— 1. Nicholas Sneden: probably the oldest child; mentioned in the will of his uncle, Nicholas Snethen, who died in 1715. No further record.

— 2. Robert Sneden, Jr., b. probably after 1713 Westchester County, NY; d. prob. by 1754; (prob) married Mary (Mollie) Dobbs of Dobbs Ferry, and moved to the west side of the Hudson River about 1740 (to the locality that came to be called Sneden's Landing, in Orange County (the section that was later set off as Rockland County) NY. She was the well-known Mollie Sneden of the Ferry.

— 3. Samuel Sneden, b. as early as 1713; d. just prior to December 1783; married Sarah Ward, daughter of Stephen Ward of Ward's Island. They lived at Eastchester in Westchester County, NY.

— 4. Abigail Sneden, married 24 November 1721 New York City (NYC Ref Dutch Ch) Joseph Winslow. He was born 16 June 1677 at Boston; died 6 April 1761 Dutchess County, N.Y.

— 5. (poss) Sarah Sneden, married John Haviland. He was b. about 169?, son of Benjamin and Abigail Haviland.

— 6. (poss) Elizabeth Sneden, married John Fowler of Eastchester.

Robert Sneden's father was Claes Sneden/Snethen, who came to New Amsterdam in December 1657 on the St. Jean Baptiste under Captain Symon Claesen bound for the Dutch settlement of New Amstel (later called New Castle) on the Delaware River. On the same ship was his brother, Jan Sneden, and Jan's wife, Grietje, and their two children.

Claes Sneden and his (probably older) brother, Jan, founders of the Sneden family in America, were once thought to have been descended from a family who were said to have lived for many years in Amsterdam. The only clue to this assumption seems to have been that Jan, his family, and his brother Claes, sailed from Amsterdam. It now seems likely, that the family may have lived for some time in England (and may have originated in Scandinavia or Germany), coming to the Netherlands, specifically Leiden and/or Amsterdam, in the early 1600s. Individuals with variations of the surname have been found in England (particularly in Devon and Dorset) in records kept between 1192 and 1750. Among the various surname spellings found on English records are Snaydon, Snedon, Sneydon, Snoudon, and Snaedyns.

Claes settled in New Amsterdam. His surname is often found spelled "Sneding." Witnesses at the baptisms of his children were Geertie Langendyck (at Maria's baptism), Claertie Ebels (at Grietje's baptism), and Marritie Hendr. Van Haerlem (at the 4th listed child's baptism; in the record, no first name is given for the child). Claes Sneden may have lived in Flushing near the Genungs (his niece Grietje, dau. of Jan Sneden, married Jean Geunon/Genung). He was known to have been there after 1667.

In 1675 a Nicholas Snathan was taxed at Flushing for "2 landes, 10 madoes [meadows], 1 horses mares, 2 oxen and boles, 3 cowes, 2 two-yere oldes, 2 yerlings. Brought in Oct. 9, 1675."

Nicholas (Claes) Snethin died at Flushing in or prior to December 1677, leaving a will in which his wife Mary was appointed sole executrix. The will is not recorded, but is referred to in "Letters of Administration" granted to "Mary, the widow of Nicholas Snethin" September 16, 1678 by Sir Edmond Andross, the proof having been made before the Court of Sessions held at Jamaica for the North Riding "in the month of December last" (1677).

Claes married by 1662 Maria/Mary -?- and they had children (first four bp. NYC Ref Dutch Ch):

- 1. Sara Sneding, bp. 30 May 1663
- 2. Maria Sneding, bp. 26 April 1664
- 3. Grietje Sneding, bp. 22 Sep 1666. No further record.
- 4. -?- Sneeding, bp. 6 Nov 1667 [no given name in bp. record; this child may be identical to Nicholas, below]
- 5. Nicholas Sneden, d. 1715; m. by 6 July 1696 Dorothy Roots.
- 6. Robert Sneden, m. Sarah -?-.
- 7. Joseph Sneden, b. before 1677 Flushing, L.I.; d. Salem, NJ; m. Rachel -?-.
- 8. Abigail Sneden, prob. m. Garret Albertsen.

Joseph Snethen, Sarah Snethen, Mary Snethen, and Abigail Snethen were listed in the August 31st 1698 census of Hempstead, Queens County, N.Y. ■
