NOTICE

Dues ($15.00) for the Genealogical Society of Rockland County for the year 2003-2004 are now payable. Please help us save on mailing costs by mailing your dues renewals promptly. Checks payable to the GSRC may be mailed to the PO Box, or directly to the Treasurer: Robert Protzmann, 4 Ethel Drive, New City, NY 10956.

Thank you!

Camera Donation:

As some of you know, last fall, the GSRC was given a donation of $500 for the purchase of a digital camera for the club's use. Over the summer, the camera was selected and purchased. Bob Protzmann has been spending some time over the summer familiarizing himself with our new Olympus Stylus 300 Digital Camera, so that he can help other members as the need arises. Since we were able to acquire the camera at a very nice price, there was money left in the budget to buy Photoshop Elements 2.0 software and a tripod. Although the camera comes with the software necessary to download pictures from the camera to a computer, it did not come with photo editing software. Photoshop Elements does this and more. All of us at one time or another have taken tombstone pictures, then realized after they were developed, that the stone could not or not easily be read. The editing software can be used to "pull" images out of seemingly poor photos or to crop and otherwise improve (not change) images of book pages, tombstones, historic buildings, etc., that we may want to document with pictures.

Volunteers

In June, we had 8 volunteers who put in a total of 200 hours for the society. That's just their recorded time!

PROGRAMS FUTURE & PAST

from Karen Lamberton

Tue 27 Jan 2004: Beth Potter of House Tales will join us for our January meeting to show us how she documents historic properties.

Tue 23 Sep 2003: This meeting's program on the role of Civil War nurses had to be cancelled. Our speaker, Britta Arendt, has had to pack up her life for a while to return to Illinois and help with her ill father. We wish them well.

14 Jun 2003: Fifth Annual Rockland Gathering

In spite of weather, which threatened to storm all day and temperatures in the nineties, the Fifth Annual Rockland Gathering held onto a five out of five record for good weather until just one hour before closing when the skies finally gave way to torrential rain! This year the committee booked two rooms in the library.

One was used for our lecturers and by Jennifer, a representative of Life History Books, who had a continuous presentation running on her laptop as well as talking to all interested persons about how LHB interviews family members and then creates keepsake family history videos. The other meeting room, on the lower floor, was transformed into an all day heritage scrapping session led by Susannah Benson of Creative Memories. While this was going on, Sally Pellegrini, our intrepid local history librarian, aided "newbies" to Ancestry.com with the ins and outs of this internet based reference on the computer in the Rockland Room.

Meanwhile, outside, several groups, including the Palisades Interstate Historical Society, had tables of information available to one and all. There were books, CDs, farmable family tree charts, and subscriptions to genealogical magazines available for raffle prizes, and as last year, three speakers were planned. Susannah Benson opened the day with an informal discussion on using photos effectively in your heritage albums, and Megan Smolenyak Smolenyak, a nationally known author and speaker, rounded out the afternoon with a most enjoyable presentation on honoring our ancestors and how our ancestors want to be found (your writer must note that I personally still have doubts about this part!). Beth Potter, of House Tales, had to cancel at the last minute due to a family situation (rescheduled for January 2004).

Mucho thanks to our fearless committee members for shaking the trees for prizes, setting up and taking down tents, signs, tables and chairs, to everyone who set up a table or brought something for the pot luck lunch - yum! And last but not least the Boy Scouts, who again came to help get us going and help out on the sign in table.

Publications: Dick Peterson reported that sales for May amounted to $193.90 (gross).

Indexing: Les reported that Marital Status is still being added to the funeral home books, and proofreading is continuing. Evidently, the first Stevenson book is still not forthcoming from Keith Taylor, so we may have to publish without it.

Maryann stated that more books have been found at Oak Hill, and they are now being compared with the records she already has entered in the computer. She is also still checking the records of the Civil War soldiers buried there. Alan Conrad Aimone, Director of Special Collections at the United States Military Academy, West Point, had sent her an 18-page bibliography of Civil War information.

Joan Brooks noted that our Website has been updated and upcoming programs are listed.

Maryann reported that, when she was looking for information about the Genealogical Society of Utah, she discovered that it is the Society that the LDS in Utah works under, so they don't have holdings of their own. Also, we have received a letter of appreciation from the Family History Library in Salt Lake City for donations of our publications for microfilming and placing in their Library.

In addition, the Orange County Genealogical Society has thanked us by letter for the donations of the Holt and Dutcher Funeral Home Books in memory of Roger A. King.

Trips: We have a list of those interested in going to Pittsfield on October 18th, and others should let Maryann know as soon as possible if they want to go. Those planning to attend so far are: Joan Brooks, George & Ruth Fee, Marie Koestler, Karen Lamberton, Robert Protzmann, Doris Rose, Maryann Smith, Christine Szermer, and George Trigg.

Regina Haring reported that Bruce Hopper had been working on the Kakiat Church Records in order to put them up on Regina's "Dutch Door" website. There was discussion about the Monsey Reformed Church and the fact that Rev. James D. Demarest had "seceded" from the Reformed Church to the Monsey True Reformed Church and had taken 68 people with him. Question as to whether the area where the Monsey Cemetery on West Maple Avenue and Saddle River Road is located was also where the original church was before it was moved. Suggestions were given for further research.

Bob Protzmann re-visited his recent program on researching his family through the history of photography. The gentleman in Connecticut he had spoken with had sent him more information, and Bob will probably visit him this summer to see his collection. Also, Bob had contributed additional information on the Lewis family to the University of California, Riverside, website, and, from that, received a communication from a descendant of Richard Lewis, who then sent Bob sixty pages of original family history information, taking him two generations back from the original immigrant in England and Wales. Bob also noted that he had searched high and low for George Thomas Jefferson Lewis, and finally found him on the Ancestry.com website; he had died of disease in the Civil War on July 16, 1862, on the James River in Virginia. Bob stated that the Civil War information on the website can be very helpful for finding soldiers, their regiments, and what battles they fought in.

We have received several communications asking for information. Maureen Ryan will handle the request regarding, if one knows a police badge number, can you find the person to whom it belonged. Karen Lamberton will follow up on the person requesting military information. Doug Renud will follow up on the question about Evergreen Cemetery in Tallman.

Maryann reported that, during her recent trip to the New York State Library in Albany, she discovered that they have gray boxes designated for each county. In the Rockland box was only one item, a copy of George Budke's article on the history of the Nyack Turnpike. She made copies.

Treasurer's Report: Bob Protzmann reported a balance of $7,576.87 in our checking account.

Membership: Bob Protzmann reported a total paid membership to date of 221.

Publications: Dick Peterson reported gross sales for last month of $554.80. Publishing budget balance is $4,416.26.

Indexing: Les Baisley reported that the final check on the Martine Funeral Home Records has to be done. We need ideas on what to put on the cover when it is published, and also someone needs to write up a narrative about the funeral home. The Shankey records are still being copied, and others are being proofed.

Website: There was discussion about listing Rockland County cemeteries and their exact locations on the website. Les noted that Maude Conklin has taken digital photos of some of the cemeteries, which she has put on the Internet.

QUERIES & REPLIES

#484 CONCKLIN/CONKLIN/CONKLING. Are you looking for a CONKLIN connection? I have several thousand CONKLIN and allied names in Rockland Co from 18th century. Send pertinent names, dates, locations. No charge.

#485 CONKLIN/ANDERSON. JOHN NELSON CONKLIN (1788-1860) had a son J. (JACOB) MYERS ANDERSON CONKLIN (1849-1915). Were they related to JACOB MYERS CONKLIN of Johnstontown who had a daughter HANNAH ELIZABETH ANDERSON (1830-1911)? And who was Hannah's mother?

#486 YOUNG/OSBORNE. Looking for descendants of HENDRICK YOUNG (ca 1742-1812) and ANNATJE (Hannah) OSBORNE of Spook Rock Rd. for genealogy to be published.

Children (Rockland Co.):

#487 WARNER. I am researching the Warner family from Rockland County. In a Surrogate's Record in Rockland County, dated 15 Dec 1830, Emeline and Sarah Ann Warner (both "above the age of 21") state that they are the children and only heirs of Daniel Warner, dec'd, "A SOLDIER IN THE ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES IN THE LATE WAR..." My question, to what war are they referring?

Additional information: I found a marriage record of Daniel Warner and Emmy Snyder on 30 July 1803 in the Ref. Prot. Dutch Church records in NYC. A legal paper filed 4 Feb 1812 by Daniel Warner and Emma his wife of NYC demands her share of a parcel of land lying in Clarkstown, County of Rockland, detained by Abraham Snyder.... Thanks a bunch.

#488 NOYELL/NOLL/DENOYELLES. Need any info on SARAH b.1750-55. She married JOHN ALLISON b.1754 in Haverstraw, a Revolutionary war soldier and son of Capt. Joseph Allison and Elizabeth Benson - all of Haverstraw. Family tradition and land record verify that she was John's wife. Their m. date abt 1778. She is NOT shown in DeNoyelles family history book of 1971 by Daniel DeNoyelles.

Allison and DeNoyelles lands are adjacent in a 1776 map of Haverstraw area. John and Sarah migrated to Monroe, Orange Co., in abt. 1800. Children were Anthony B., b. 1780, William, John, Sarah Brooks and Alexander, all b. Haverstraw.

#490 MORGAN; "S. Frances Church" Sloatsburg

We just located Baptism Certificates for my husband's father, Charles Webster Morgan, b. 27 Jan 1905 in Sloatsburg NY (son of Charles Morgan and Carrie Morgan; Sponsor: The Parents), and grandfather, Charles Morgan, b. 5 Dec 1878 in Sterlington NY (son of Daniel or David Morgan [hard to read] & Hannah Morgan; Sponsor: Sidney Storms).

Both received "Holy Baptism" on Mon 19 Feb 1906 at the "S. Frances Church" in Sloatsburg, "Diocese of New York", the certificates signed by "William Fitz Simon, Rector". Could you possibly tell us where "S Frances Church" is? I tried looking it up and found no listing. We would appreciate any information about "S. Frances Church."

Our GSRC Web Site lists, under Churches:

St Francis Episcopal Church, Sloatsburg NY, 1904-1974, began as a chapel of St. Mary's, Tuxedo, NY. Last 20 years, was a mission church of Diocese of NY. Many members transferred to Suffern. [Source: American Revolution Bicentennial

[Note "Francis" vs. "Frances"??? - ed.]

From the above, it appears that the church no longer exists. There is a St. Elizabeth's Chapel in Sloatsburg (10974). The telephone book listing gives only a telephone number: 845-753-5338

News from NARA

From the NEHGS web newsletter, seen 3/6/03 by JDL

On February 12, the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) made available their "Access to Archival Databases (AAD) System" to the public via their website, www.archives.gov/aad/. AAD provides researchers access to over 350 databases containing over fifty million historical electronic records created by more than twenty federal agencies. Researchers may search these records by first choosing from subject, geographic area, organization, time span, and creator. Drop down menus are available for each of these search options, to help the user quickly find the information needed. Once a specific database is selected and submitted, a general database page appears, showing the creator of the record, a brief description, and a link to a more detailed page. From this page users may search for information contained in the file. A few databases follow, with descriptions taken from the website:

Korean War File of American Prisoners of War , ca. 1950 – ca. 1953.

World War II Prisoners of War File , ca. 1942 – ca. 1947.

Index to the Gorgas Hospital Mortuary Death Records (Contains "records of 26,213 U.S. military soldiers and officers, employees of the Panama Canal Commission and its predecessors, and Canal Zone civilians processed through the Gorgas Hospital Mortuary between 1906 and 1991.").

Famine Irish Data File (Identifies "604,596 persons who emigrated from Ireland to the United States during the era of the Irish Potato Famine [1846–1851], and the ships on which they arrived.").

Civil War Events File, 4/12/1861 – 5/13/1865: "Of 10,500 armed conflicts in the military history of the Civil War, the file contains information on 384 conflicts that the Commission identified as the principal battles. Each record identifies the following information: state and county or counties of the historic site, the type of battle or event that occurred there, the theater of operations and the campaign to which the engagement relates, the dates of the battle or event, the current ownership of the site, and the assessment of three subject area experts of the military significance, physical integrity, historic preservation status, and interpretive potential of the site or event, and whether it should be a priority for protection of cultural property."

The first independence resolution on record, containing the essential principals of the Declaration of Independence, was passed at a meeting held in Orangetown on July 4, 1774.

The House With Nobody In It By Joyce Kilmer

Whenever I walk to Suffern
along the Erie track,
I go by a poor old farm house
with its shingles broken and black.
I suppose I've passed it a hundred times,
but I always stop for a minute,
And look at the house, the tragic house,
the house with nobody in it.

I have never seen a haunted house,
but I hear there are such things;
That they hold the talk of spirits,
their mirth and sorrowings.
I know this house isn't haunted,
and I wish it were, I do;
For it wouldn't be so lonely
if it had a ghost or two.

This house on the road to Suffern
needs a dozen panes of glass,
And somebody ought to weed the walk
and take a scythe to the grass.
It needs new paint and shingles,
and the vines should be trimmed and tied;
But what it needs most of all
is some people living inside.

If I had a lot of money
and all my debts were paid,
I'd put a gang of men to work
with brush and saw and blade.
I'd buy that place and fix it up
the way it used to be,
And I'd find some people who wanted a home
and give it to them free.

Now, a new house standing empty,
with staring window and door,
Looks idle, perhaps, and foolish,
like a hat on it's block in the store,
But there's nothing mournful about it;
it cannot be sad and lone,
For the lack of something within it
that it has never known.

But a house that has done what a house should do,
a house that has sheltered life,
That has put its loving wooden arms
around a man and his wife,

A house that has echoed a baby's laugh
and held up his stumbling feet,
Is the saddest sight, when it's left alone,
that ever your eyes could meet.

So whenever I go to Suffern
along the Erie track,
I never go by the empty house
without stopping and looking back.
Yet it hurts me to look at the crumbling roof
and the shutters falling apart,
For I can't help thinking the poor old house
is a house with a broken heart.

1930 Census - a locator aid

Ed. note: The Winter issue of the FGS Forum, 14(4):7, has an interesting article on "The One-Step 1930 Census Website: Subtleties in Its Use," by Stephen P. Morse, who hosts the site. The site is:

<http://home.pacbell.net/spmorse/census>

This site lets you find the Enumeration District for a known street address. It currently covers over 200 cities with 1930 populations over 45,000.

By a fairly simple set of steps (more than one!), you "outline" the block where the house is, and that gives you the ED for that block. You must get your street address from other sources, such as old letters or city directories. The site lets you detour to MapQuest to identify the streets forming the block, needed to uniquely identify the ED. This leaves you with just a single ED to scroll through instead of several. I tried it on a family of current interest, and it worked like a charm, allowing me to find them in the 1930 census even though for some reason the available census index didn't list them.

Mentioned in the article are some name indexes in print, and some exact-address indexes for some cities - including NYC's five boros. The "One-Step" site has about a dozen other NY cities, but the only other Hudson River city is Troy. Also, Ancestry.com now offers a 'complete' every-name index to the 1930 census, but if the name is seriously misspelled or has been missed, then the address can be pursued via this ingenious site.

The first independence resolution on record, containing the essential principals of the Declaration of Independence, was passed at a meeting held in Orangetown on July 4, 1774.

Readers are encouraged to send contributions relating to Rockland County genealogy, including appropriate citations when possible so that others can pursue your findings farther if they wish. Our Newsletter goes to several libraries and other Societies, and is one good way you can be sure your family data won't get lost!

Email addresses are gladly published also - especially if you include your Rockland County names of interest! Your postal address is in the Surname Index (Dec 2002). New members are published in lists that I get from Robert Protzmann, <Robert.Protzman@Akzo-Nobel.com>.

Queries: Should relate to Rockland County, and include specific names, dates, places, and events so that the question can be properly studied by others. Both postal and email addresses are helpful, since some readers are not members and may wish to respond. Postal addresses change less often, too.

Replies to Queries are welcome! If you reply to a Query, please send a copy to me so that others can benefit from it! Include the Query # to which you are replying.

All submissions are subject to editing for content or to fit the space available, and are published as space permits. Submitters occasionally may be contacted for clarification if indicated.

Photographs are welcome!
