GSRC MINUTES OF MEETING

Tuesday, May 25, 2004

New City Library

Meeting called to order at 7:05 p.m. by Vice President Karen Lamberton.

Vote on Officers for the 2004-2005 term: Karen

Lamberton read the slate:

President – Michael Secora. Vice-President – Richard Peterson

Treasurer – Robert Protzmann. Secretary – Joan Brooks

Trustees:

Florence Anderson, Les Baisley, George Fee, Marie Koestler, Henry Rennie, Douglas Renud and Maryann Smith (as past President).

Richard Peterson made a motion to accept the nominations; seconded by George Trigg; motion carried. Vice President Karen Lamberton asked the Secretary to cast the one vote. In the absence of Secretary Joan Brooks, the acting secretary, Marie Koestler, cast the vote. Officers will begin their terms at the June, 2004, meeting.

Treasurer's Report: Robert Protzmann: April balance was $11,080.95; May balance is $11,094.39.

Membership: Robert Protzmann: Total membership - 220; no new members this past month.

Publications: Richard Peterson: The "Martine Funeral Home" book is at the printers and will be available for purchase at the June meeting. The price will be determined by the printing cost – it should be between the $30 and $35; it will be about the same size as the Holt or Dutcher books.

Publication Report: There were 15 sales during April and May for a total of: $234.35.

Indexing: Les Baisley: The Stevenson Funeral Home book is in the final stage of editing, collecting photographs and preparation of a brief history. It may be ready for the June meeting.

New Business: George Trigg: The committee that was to turn over the Canadian census data to the National Archives for publication has now refused to do so. These census records are very important to researchers. A petition has been prepared for signature of Canadian genealogists and of researchers outside of Canada. George asked that members of GSRC sign the petition -- he will mail the forms to the proper address.

Visitors: John and Catherine McCormick are going to Germany in June to do research on John's family surnames -- Hahn and Bauer. Suggestions were given by Sally Pelligrini, Bob Protzmann, Karen Lamberton, George Trigg, and Henry Rennie about German research sources.

Member Susan Shuler stated that she was working on the Jones, Rose, Blake, Johnson, etc. families from the Harriman State Park area. Names of local researchers of these family names were given to Susan as well as local sources.

Sally Pelligrinni reported that a trip is planned for June to go to the New York Public Library or to the National Archives.

At 7:35 p.m. a motion to adjourn was made by Richard Peterson, seconded by: Robert Protzmann.
Meeting adjourned for coffee and conversation.

GOOD OLD DAYS

DELMONICO'S at 494 Pearl Street, Manhattan, New York's famous restaurant of the 19th century, was opened by Lorenzo Delmonico, an almost penniless Swiss immigrant. He is believed to be the first restaurateur to furnish his customers with a printed bill-of-fare.

His 1834 menu offered a "regular dinner" for 12 cents.

Other prices: Cup of Tea or Coffee 1 cent. Bowl 2, Cruller 1, Soup 2, Fried or Stewed Liver, Heart or Hash 3.

For 4-cents one might have Pie (1/2 for 2 cents), Beef or Mutton Stew, Corned Beef or Pig's Head with cabbage, Fried Fish, Beef Steak, Pork Chops, Pork and Beans, Sausages or Puddings.

For 5 cents the menu offered Liver and Bacon, Roast Beef or Veal, Roast Mutton, Veal Cutlet, Chicken Stew or Fried Eggs.

For 10 cents Ham and Eggs, Hamburger Steak or Roast Chicken.

$6.00 a week was a good wage for that period.

The series includes material from 1864, 1870, 1874, 1880 and 1890. The 1864 Accounts were published in the March 2004 issue of this Newsletter.

THE FIRST MAP OF PATERSON, NJ

*"Who Owned the Land Now Embraced in the City of Paterson
One Hundred and Seventy-Two Years Ago"
(from a Paterson/Passaic area newspaper circa 1885)*

Judge Henry P. SIMMONS, of Passaic, is without doubt the best of our local antiquaries. He has in his possession documents of almost priceless value, including the original "Acquackanonk Patent," of which so much has been said of late. One of the most interesting of the Judge's possessions is the first map of Paterson, made in 1713, or one hundred and seventy-two years ago. Of course Paterson was then no "city," but this map covers the land now embraced by the City of Paterson. It is, in fact, a map of the farm tracts of all the original proprietors of the "Boght" (or bend) of the Passaic River, Paterson now lying in said "Boght."

This map was made in 1713--as already stated--by Jan VAN KERRICK (John from the Church). It was found by Judge Simmons among about three bushels of old papers contained in an old tea chest which came into his possession at the time of his marriage, having been the former property of Gerrit GERRITSON (or VAN WAGONER), the ancestor of Judge Simmon's wife, who appears to have been a person of prime consideration among our "first settlers."

In the original patent, there were fourteen proprietors to whom 14 farms were laid out in the Acquackanonk section; fourteen in the Wesel section (that where Cedar Lawn and vicinity now lies) and 28 in the "Boght" or bend. The map referred to represents these last 28 farms.

They are laid out on each side of a straight division line (which the Judge says is about the line of the present Broadway), 18 being on the north and 15 on the south side. The names of these first proprietors of the lands in this city were as follows:

Beginning at the west end of the division line (say Broadway), just under the "steep rocks and mountain," we have the farm of

No. 1, Magiel VRELANT (VREELAND, or FREELAND), which is a triangular plot, the rest being parallel-grams. This first plot is 27 chains, 27 links along the line spoken of.

No. 2 (we go east now) was Leyes VRELANT, 11 chains and 55 links (all these measurements being along the line spoken of);

No. 3, 10 chains, 60 links, was Hendric POST,

No. 4, 10 chains, 27 links was Heimus POST,

No. 5, 10 chains, 19 links, belonged to Hessel PIETERSE and (the latter was the ancestor of Mrs. Judge Simmons.)

No. 6, 11 chains, Jan VAN BLARCOM. (This property Judge Simmons says is in the VAN BLARCOM family yet.)

No. 7, 12 chains, 21 links, Abram TOMASSE (or VAN RIPER).

No. 8, 13 chains, Henderic SPIER.

No. 9, 14 chains, and No. 10, 19 chains, Derric VAN HOUIE.

No. 11, 21 chains, A IRIANSE,

No. 12, 18 chains, 35 links, POST (no Christian name given).

No. 13, 37-1/2 chains, Cornelis GERRITSE.

The farms on the south side of the dividing line were (beginning at the west end under the rocks),

No. 1, Franz POST, 11 chains;

No. 2, Hessel PEITERSE, 12 chains, 33 links;

No. 3, Abram VAN REYPE, 15 chains;

No. 4, Elias VRELAND, 16 chains;

No. 5 Adrie POST, 13 chains, 75 links;

No. 6 Jan VAN BLERKAM, 11 chains, 75 links

No. 7, Simeion VAN WINCKEL, 10 chains, 15 links,

No. 8, Magiel VRELAND, 10 chains, 15 links;

No. 9, Simeion VAN WENCKEL, 10 chains, 25 links,

No. 10, Abram VAN REYPE, 12 chains, 20 links;

No. 11, Henderic SPIER, 10 chains;

No. 12, Magiel VRELAND, 18 chains;

No. 13, Yohn ORAETBERSIE(?) (WESTERVELT) 23 chains, 30 links;

No. 14, Henderic GERRETTE, 25 chains;

No. 15, Magiel VRELAND, 15 chains.

In this interesting map, the dividing line east and west--which we may designate Broadway, though there was not Broadway or any other street then--is bisected at about the middle of the map by a straight line which Judge Simmons says is the old "York Road" or road to New York, which is perpetuated by the present "York Avenue." This road ran south into what is now Willis Street, past Vreeland Avenue, and straight over the hill to the river. At the point of intersection of the two lines spoken of lay the farms of Simeion VAN WINCKEL and Magiel VRELAND, on the south, and Abram THOMASSE, and Henderic SPIER on the north.

No doubt the transcript we have given of this valuable old map will be read with great interest by all the denizens of the great city which has now absorbed these ancient farms, and especially by the many descendant residents here of the honored pioneers who more than a hundred and seventy-two years ago owned the lands of the "Boght." -- Press.

(The above is taken from an article within PCHS's "Winfield Scott Collection." Scott, a Passaic Attorney, maintained a collection area newspaper articles from about the late 19th century which he organized into a series of five scrapbooks and later donated to PCHS.)
