Genealogical Society of Rockland County Continues

Thanks to the following members the Genealogical Society will continue. Every two years it gets more difficult to get members to serve as Officers or on the Board of the Genealogical Society. Some of us have been serving for 25 years in different positions. Please consider inviting a relative that will take over the family records, when you are no longer available to our next meeting. They may be our future officers.

Looking back over the years of GSRC Newsletters, I saw we had many interesting articles. In the near future we hope to get them on our web site. We have many projects going, but could use your help in obtaining both bible records and newspaper obituary notices. Please make a copy of the page giving the date of the Bible and tell us who is in the possession of the Bible now. You can make a copy of several obituaries on one page. Eventually, we would like to list the obits that we have available with the person's name and date of death.

Tue., Sep. 28 – 7 pm

The Orphan Train

Tom Riley, our newly elected President will introduce himself and also offer an update on the status and growth of the Orphan Train that is happening across the country. The Orphan Train was a project that started in the mid-1800's when thousands of orphans in New York City were put on trains and sent to the west. People adopted these children for many reasons. Researchers may have relatives who were part of this.

Fall Trip to NYC

Interested in going to New York City to do research? Several members from the Genealogy Society are volunteering to take people into the city to one of the major research sites - New York Public, National Archives or Chambers Street vital records. We are still deciding the date in September or October and the place. Check the New City Library newsletter that comes out in September for specifics or call 634-4997 ext 139. We will either go by public transportation or car pool

Migration Routes In America

"How Did Your Family Get There & Why Did They Go?"

Sharon Hodges

You know your family moved from one place to another in the United States, you just don't know how or why. Understanding why your ancestors may have left their home and moved to a new location and the routes taken to get there (up to 1850), may lead to new information about those elusive ancestors.

Sharon Hodges was born in New Jersey and now resides in Northern Virginia. A professional genealogist, teacher and lecturer, Sharon has been involved in genealogical research for over 20 years. She is the author of Using Passport Records, NGS Magazine, April-June 2009. She is a member of many genealogical societies, and has served on the board of several. Sharon specializes in Northern New Jersey, District of Columbia, and Northern Virginia research.

Note of thanks,

I'm sending a note of thanks to Marie Koestler for vital information given in the March issue P. 5 re: Bible records Smit Family. I noticed that grandmother was a Hannah and her daughter Aulchey based on birth records, turned to Letty or Letitia the wife of Wm. Gilchrist- on P. 6 John J. Youmans -son George was my great grandfather and dates were very helpful. Elaine Colantuoni , 12130 Spartan Way, Bayonet Pt, FL 34667-3104

ANCESTOR TABLES

In order to increase interaction between members, the society will continue to publish Ancestor Tables submissions, which are brief listings of the ancestry of members. It is hoped that members will find distant cousins who share common lines, which will further the research efforts of us all. All members are encouraged to submit their Ancestor Tables to the Ancestor Table Editor, Bob Protzmann, 4 Ethel Drive, New City, NY 10956-6328, or by E-mail, in WORD, or .txt format to Protzy41@optonline.net.

PLEASE NOTE: - The accuracy of information presented in Ancestor Tables is the responsibility of the submitters, and not the responsibility of the Genealogical Society of Rockland County. Please do not submit information that is not documented. If there is any uncertainty, the information should be marked with a "?." Anyone who desires further information, documentation, or has questions or additional information, should contact the submitter at his address given at the head of the Table.

Additional data should be sent to the submitter, and copied to the Ancestor Table Editor, at the address noted above. We will publish comments and corrections, etc., in the Ancestor Table Forum.

The numbering system used is as follows: The first person on the list is number 1. Each ancestor's father is Twice that person's number. Each wife is one number higher than her husband. If all ancestor's were known, then all numbers would be used. When an ancestor is unknown, the number is skipped. The number in parentheses after each generation is the number of ancestors in that generation. A ♦ indicates the last known ancestor in that line. A * indicates that the individual occurs more than once in the ancestry,  indicates the second listing for the individual.

Time lines and Chronologies

An effective technique for creating a family history is to establish a time line.

Place events chronologically in outline form, and intersperse with historical, local and familial events. Once the structure is set, look for gaps where information is lacking and make notes of documentation and records to be completed.

Don't forget to include:

1. Legal Transactions (land, probate)
2. Migration and Immigration
3. Military
4. Occupation
5. Religious (church formations and movements, persecutions)
6. Territorial (counties and state formations)
7. Vital Records (dates, locations)
8. External Events (economic, political, social, diseases, man-made and natural disasters)

To locate time lines and chronologies at RootsWeb, enter "Time line", "timeline", "historical time line" or "chronology" in the Search Engine, located from RootsWeb's Main menu.

PROGRAMS

GSRC Program, 23 Mar 2010

TONY LAURIANO, Speaker

Subject: Case Studies

This was a very informative program in which Mr. Lauriano first spoke about name changes. He noted that in most cases, changes were not the fault of the recorder at Ellis Island. Many immigrants could not spell their own name and the recorder could only write a phonetic interpretation of the way the name was possibly spelled. Try alternate spellings found on www.yourheritage.com

A review of some of the genealogical websites that Mr. Lauriano finds helpful in his research are: ancestry.com ($); footnote.com ($); familysearch.org; archives.gov; castlegarden.org; ellisland.org; theshipslist.com; italiangen.org; GermanyGenealogyGroup.com; myheritage.com; stevemorse.org; ourtimelines.com and the official government sites such as NARA.

Other topics he briefly spoke about were a few of his actual case studies. To locate information about a man in service where he knew the branch of service, a unit number or a ship name, he would search on that information and when he located a source, he would add the data to the genealogy record to make a more interesting narrative and bring the person's life into focus.

To locate Civil War Pension records, try www.Footnote.com as an alternate source to the National Archives.

WW II, Korean, Vietnam records were stored at the military records office in St. Louis, MO. Unfortunately, a fire occurred in 1973 destroying the majority of records. A search is in progress to locate alternate sources of records to replace the ones that were destroyed.

If your ancestor lived in New York City, be aware that the city had photographed many houses and buildings in the city. A photograph of your ancestor's home would be an interesting addition to your genealogy.

When searching a port of entry and not finding one for your ancestor, remember that it was often cheaper to find passage from Ireland and Europe to Canada and then go by rail into Vermont, and then on to Ellis Island. That Canadian port may have been the source of entry to North America.

Irish genealogy is particularly difficult, especially trying to locate Catholic records in Northern Ireland. The many problems between the Catholics and the Protestants led to the destruction of records.

GSRC Program, April 27, 2010

Speaker: Robert A. Mayers

Subject: The War Man

Robert A. Mayers, author of The War Man, a biography of Corporal John Allison of Haverstraw, who served in the Continental Army and the Orange County Militia during the eight years of the Revolutionary War and again joined the Militia during the War of 1812.

Bob gave a very lively presentation of the trials and tribulations of Corporal John Allison, with a slide show, a description of marches up and down the eastern part of North America and the battles he fought in.

The Allison family came to America c. 1619 to Hempstead Long Island. They arrived in the New Hempstead area of Orange County, NY in 1720. Land was purchased in the Kakiat Patent, covering a mile of river bank along the Hudson River at Grassy Point that now encompasses the present town of Haverstraw.

In 1755, at the age of 21 years, John enlisted in the army in 1775 at Coe's Tavern in Clarkstown. Local battles that he fought in included the Highlands Campaign of October 1777, Fort Clinton and Fort Montgomery, Doodletown, and the five mile stretch from Haverstraw along the river to Kings Ferry at Verplank Point and down to the area of Major John André's capture in Westchester. He was at Morristown, Jockey Hollow in New Jersey on the invasion of Canada, the Sullivan-Clinton campaign, and at Ticonderoga. He was at the second siege line at Yorktown. He completed his service at New Windsor, NY. After the war, the dedicated soldier settled at Stony Point to become a farmer.

In 1801, John went West to Monroe, NY; he became a migrant worker cutting timber around Smith's Clove, Woodbury and Highland Mills for the charcoal furnaces. He returned to Monroe in 1811, and then joined the Orange County Militia during the War of 1812. Discovery of a pension application of 1818 shows that he died at the age of 74 years.

Mr. Mayers raveled to the various battle sights that his ancestor, John Allison, took part in. Bob's presentation of his experiences in tracing these routes made this one the best programs the society has had over the years.

PROGRAM AT GSRC MEETING 5/25/2010

SPEAKER: Patrick Raftery

SUBJECT: The Cemeteries of Westchester County

Patrick is the author of a three-volume book entitled The Cemeteries of Westchester County: one volume for Northern Westchester, one for Central Westchester and one for Southern Westchester.

Patrick's interest in cemeteries and tombstones developed when he worked as an intern at St. Paul's Church National Historic Site in Mt. Vernon. He presented various slides of Westchester burial grounds along with background history.

Highlights were slides of the Richbell Cemetery in Mamaroneck, Burial Hill Cemetery in Pound Ridge, and St. Peter's Cemetery in Town of Cortlandt with its big monument of John Paulding, one of the captors of Major Andre. At St. Paul's Church in Mt. Vernon are two of the oldest datable tombstones in the county – one of Richard Shute, first Town Clerk of Eastchester, and the other with the initials "MV," probably for a member of the Valentine family.

The Old Burial Ground at the Bedford Village Green is believed to be the oldest surviving cemetery in Westchester, founded in the 1650s. One slide was of a stone for a Canfield who died in 1761, and one for Justice Wheeler who died in 1750.

He mentioned the types of tombstones popular in the past: sandstone which came into use in about 1760; footstones were used from about 1750 to late 1800s. Marble didn't become popular until about 1840. If you notice a stone that doesn't match the style in fashion when the person died, it indicates that the stone was erected many years after the person died. Before the Revolution, sentiments on tombstones were rather dreary, after that they were more optimistic.

Quakers were against fancy funerals and elaborate displays of mourning and discouraged the use of tombstones until the 1840s. If you see a tombstone inscribed with "died in the tenth month," etc., it usually means you are looking at a Quaker burial.

Patrick's slide presentation and his discussion regarding the various cemeteries, habits of burial and types of stones in use was very interesting and informative.

Rockland Cemeteries

Editor's Note: we are in the process of computerizing the cemeteries in the Orangetown, Haverstraw & Stony Point towns. Do you know of anyone buried in one of the small family or large cemeteries without a stone and would like to have that person listed? If so please contact the editor so that person can be recorded.

GSRC MEETING 6/22/2010

SPEAKER: Tony Lauriano

SUBJECT: Navigating Key Genealogy Websites

Tony discussed the four most popular websites for genealogical research: ancestry.com, familysearch.org, italiengen.org and ssdi.rootsweb.ancestry.com, myheritage.com

MYHERITAGE.COM is a source of the possible identity of name changes. The site uses a soundex system to research various spellings of names.

ANCESTRY.COM

Actual copies of certain records are available online: U.S. Census, City Directories, Ships' Manifests; Military Registrations, Newspaper Obituaries it has Soundex capability; WW I and WW II Draft Card Registrations are available. A good suggestion was to create a timeline for major events or moves your families may have made. Worldwide records are available on this "pay" site.

Census records are online from 1790 through 1930, with the exception of those for 1890 which were burned in a fire. Efforts are being made to create at least a partial record for that year through other sources.

The U.S. may not have been the first port of entry for immigrants; many came in through Canada when quota regulations permitted, then passed through Maine, Connecticut, New York and on to their destinations. If a family has not been located, try the census records for these entry states.

FAMILYSEARCH.ORG

This free site is provided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS) and has many Family History Centers throughout the U.S. (Fees are charged for copies of records that may be ordered and photos are not on line.) Registration is a formality.

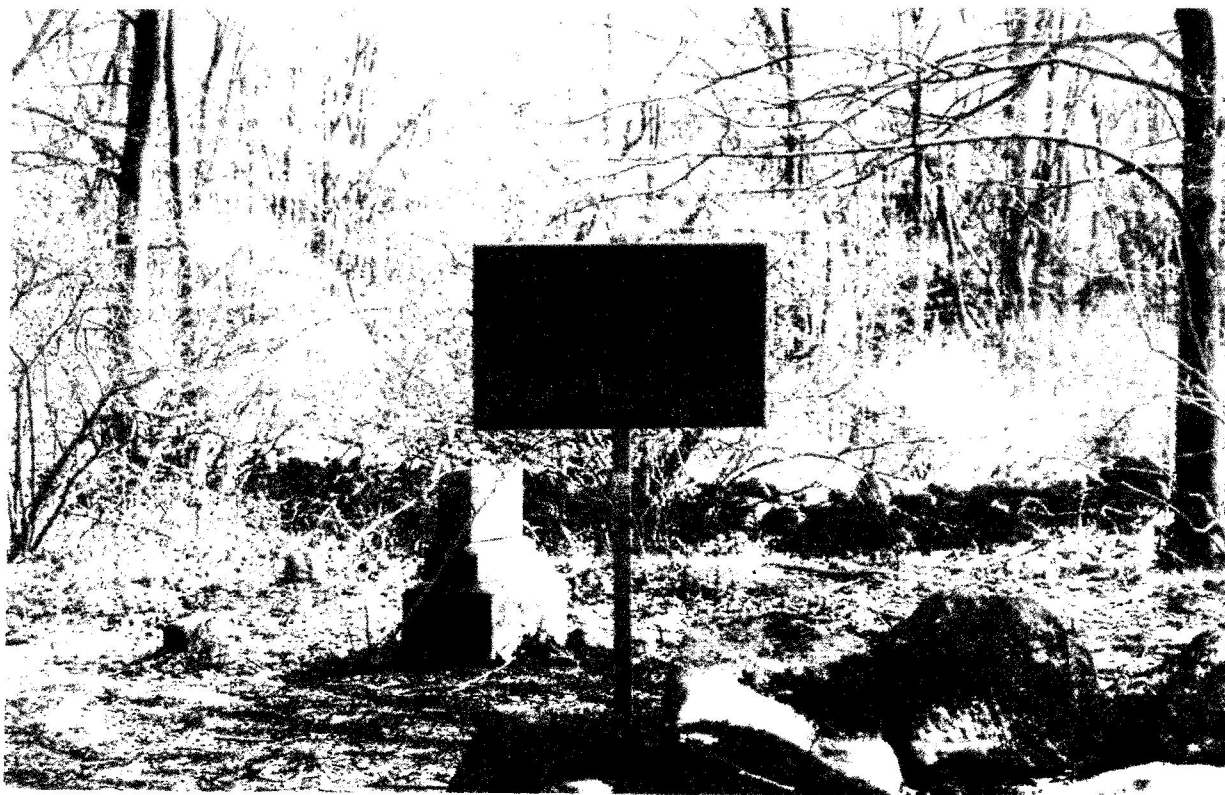

Access is available to millions of records in the U.S. and globally. The International Genealogical Index (IGI) is a good source to start your research. Batch numbers indicate the source of information and copies may be ordered. For Ireland, a list of records is available. Catholic church records were generally burned, try the Protestant church records. In time, the records will be available on line.

ITALIANGEN.ORG (IGG)
